

Historic Sites in Our Town

In 1900 at the south side of Main Street near the West Shore Railroad in Guilderland Center stood the Palace Hotel for travelers and journeymen. It had 30 rooms, a dining room and bar and a livery stable. The comfortable waystop burned in 1920.

Photo courtesy of Guilderland Historical Society
Alice Begley, Town Historian